Santa Barbara, CA, July 31, 2024 Lobero LIVE presents Toad the Wet Sprocket on Thursday, August 29, 2024 at 7:30 PM. Santa Barbara's most successful alternative group returns to the Lobero stage. The trio of founding members Glen Phillips, Todd Nichols, and Dean Dinning are still making new music and touring with the same spirit of independence that started it all. Recognized as one of the most respected and revered cult bands of their era, the group has remained committed to creating music that is both meaningful and accessible. Their songs are filled with introspective lyrics, melodic guitars and vocal harmonies that have resonated for fans for decades. This year marks the 30th Anniversary of the 1994 platinum selling album Dulcinea.

The band took a break in the late '90s, with the members pursuing solo projects. However, they reunited in 2006 and have continued to perform together ever since. In 2013, they released their first album in 16 years, New Constellation. The album included fan-favorite tracks "The Moment," "California Wasted," and "Enough" that revealed the band's growth and versatility. Starting Now (2021) marked a return to form for the band, with introspective lyrics, and signature harmonies. It was well-received and showcased the band's signature sound, while also exploring new sonic territories. Songs like "Transient Whales", "Starting Now" and "Hold On" serve as core performance tracks at live shows and as fan favorites.

Toad's most recent album, All You Want, is a remastered greatest hits album and features the most recent single "Best of Me" (2023), an alternative version to the album release cut of the track featuring Michael McDonald. Crediting their success to the unwavering support of their fans, Toad the Wet Sprocket are celebrating Dulcinea throughout the year on tour. Many songs from the LP are played in the band's live set every night on tour, and in 2023, "Fall Down" was featured on the Showtime series Billions, with the song showing up on the Shazam charts the following week. Limited edition commemorative Dulcinea merchandise will be available at the band's online store and on all tour dates, as well as a limited quantity of Dulcinea on vinyl that will be a repressing of the original.
