Santa Barbara, CA, September 25, 2025 – EARL MINNIS PRESENTS and Lobero Theatre Foundation present An Evening with Los Lobos, with special guest Molly Maher, on Friday, October 25, 2024 at 7:30 PM. The multi-GRAMMY® Award-winning band has sold millions of records, won prestigious awards, and made fans around the world. But perhaps its most lasting impact will be how well its music embodies the idea of America as a cultural melting pot. In it, styles like rock-and-roll and R&B, surf music and soul, mariachi and música norteaña, punk rock and country all come together to create a new sound that's greater than the sum of its parts.

The band features David Hidalgo (vocals, guitars), Louie Pérez, Jr. (vocals, guitars), Cesar Rosas (vocals, guitars, bass, Hammond B3 organ), Conrad Lozano (vocals, bass), and Steve Berlin (saxes, midisax, keyboards). For all the trailblazing musical acts who've emerged from Los Angeles, very few embody the city's wildly eclectic spirit more wholeheartedly than Los Lobos. Over the last five decades, the East L.A.-bred band has made an indelible mark on music history by exploring an enormous diversity of genres and building a boldly unpredictable sound all their own.

Their latest LP, Native Sons, showcases the band's versatility with both sophistication and playful spontaneity, an element that's perfectly reflected in the album's unbridled joy. These brothers have always held a deep appreciation for diverse music, and they love pulling out old gems and making them shine like new. Beyond that undeniably feel-good quality, Native Sons essentially serves as a love letter to Los Angeles and the endless possibilities to be found when all boundaries are shattered.

Molly Maher's music resides on the border of Americana roots and big city grooves, moving beautifully between them – blending simmering cools with twangy lament-filled spirit and guitar driven country-folk-jam with a blues swagger. She has explored the intersections of American music and global rhythms with curiosity and returned to sing about it with an authentic and sage voice. Writing songs that ring true, Molly's singing is a fine balance of deep and soulful, somewhere between Lucinda Williams and Bonnie Raitt. Her live performances are an unforgettable experience.
