Jazz at the Lobero presents

Charles Lloyd Delta Trio featuring Jason Moran and Marvin Sewell

Friday, March 14, 2025 at 7:30 PM

Santa Barbara, CA, February 10, 2025 – Jazz at the Lobero presents Charles Lloyd Delta Trio, featuring Jason Moran and Marvin Sewell, on Friday, March 14, 2025 at 7:30 PM. Celebrating Charles Lloyd's 87th birthday and his 20th concert at the Lobero, Lloyd brings together a special trio for the first time. The Lobero has welcomed pianist and McArthur genius, Jason Moran several times with Lloyd, but this will be guitarist, Marvin Sewell's, first appearance here. The three of them share Southern roots and each brings a unique perspective and contribution to America's indigenous artform – jazz.

"Mr. Lloyd has come up with a strange and beautiful distillation of the American experience, part abandoned and wild, part immensely controlled and sophisticated." – The New York Times

Voted DownBeat magazine's Artist of the Year in 1967, Charles Lloyd was again voted Artist of the Year in 2023. And in 2024 he was honored with a rare DownBeat Critic's Poll quadruple crown; Hall of Fame, Artist of the Year, Album of the Year, and Tenor Saxophonist of the Year – John Coltrane being the only other artist to receive that honor.

Charles Lloyd is an NEA jazz Master, a Memphis Music Hall of Fame inductee and a recipient of the French honor; l'Ordre Chevalier des Arts et Lettres. Lloyd's current Blue Note album, The Sky Will Still Be There Tomorrow won the Netherlands' prestigious Edison Award for best International Jazz Recording of 2024 and stands as one of the most significant recordings of his career. With threads of gospel and blues, spiritual power, and pristine beauty, the album has received worldwide critical acclaim.

Beyond the jazz world, his ethereal sounds enthralled rock royalty from the Beach Boys to the Grateful Dead, from Hendrix to Joplin. From his deep connection to the blues of his native Memphis to his deified jazz stature, from his collaborations with the late Indian tabla master Zakir Hussain, rock and country goddess Lucinda Williams, and jazz guitar giant Bill Frisell, to the power and beauty of his newest quartet recording, Charles Lloyd continues to be, in the words of Carlos Santana, "an international music treasure."

Jason Moran is one of the most influential and innovative pianists in jazz history. His activity stretches beyond the many recordings and performances with masters of the form – including Charles Lloyd, Bill Frisell, and the late Sam Rivers – and the artist's work with his trio, The Bandwagon, has resulted in a profound discography for Blue Note Records. Over the years, Moran and his group have challenged the status quo in every category that matters, earning the reputation as "the future of jazz." The scope of his partnerships and music-making with venerated and iconic visual artists is extensive. The pianist, composer, and performance artist has collaborated with such major figures as Adrian Piper, Joan Jonas, Glenn Ligon, Stan Douglas, and more. Moran was named a MacArthur Fellow in 2010 and is the Artistic Director for Jazz at The Kennedy Center.

Marvin Sewell is a New York-based blues and jazz guitarist, born and raised in Chicago – his roots are in the Mississippi Delta. He has performed and recorded with leading pop, blues and jazz artists; notably as music director for Cassandra Wilson, as well as with Brandi Carlile, Ani DeFranco, David Sanborn, Jack DeJohnette, Lizz Wright, Cecile McLorin Salvant, Christian Sands, Charles Lloyd, and many others. The artist has led The Marvin Sewell Group since 2001 and composes much of their music. He has received great acclaim throughout the world of music.
